Gentlemen

This will make you acquainted that I have drawn on you for $200 in fav<sup>r</sup> of Robertin Haier of this place pay<sup>d</sup> in N York which I have no doubt will be duly honor<sup>d</sup> & meet your approbation. I have purchas<sup>d</sup> since my last to you 10 lbs of Indigo & hope to make out the 45 lbs in time for the Argus return & not exceed $3<sup>00</sup> tho the planters are now asking more on acct the rumour of the 3 galleons to be intend<sup>d</sup> to be repeal<sup>d</sup> that Horrible Law Cotton is now current at $12<sup>00</sup> Cash I was in hope to hold of some at your limits. But it was impossible as the holders all expect the odious Law into be repeal<sup>d</sup> by 4 months. I hope your Mrs Jones will have arriv<sup>d</sup> to his Family &c. & that come attend in good health. I should have been very happy indeed to have seen him at Fayette & would cheerfully give him my best love & I think he must have had a pleasant journey I see something new among the DEMS of Congress I anticipate the hope that they the Dem<sup>s</sup> will not dare to involve this Country in a War with G<sup>r</sup> to make Free Ships Free Goods for that the Dem<sup>s</sup> are on the course at last I think

please to inform me your opinion respecting the price of Cotton with you & in Boston I shall have a Debt due in Boston next month & wish to know if cotton will do for me I have pick'd <sup>up</sup> some few Bales for this purpose I will do all I can to hand you your pay as fast as I can possibly get hold of anything that will answer for your Interest. O Pearce's daughter Eliza intend to take a Husband on Thursday Evening next a Dr Robinson of this Town to be the happy man. a good Demoche with O Powell He is nephew to the Senator from Vermont now in Senate U.S. I wish them all the Happiness they can desire &c I can't help tell you Mr Huske had a fine Boy 31 <sup>to</sup> from the I wish Sincerely my best wishes for your & family Happiness & Remain yours Obedient

Gentlemen

This will make you acquainted that I have drawn on you for $200 in fav<sup>r</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Sebastian Staiert of this place pay<sup>d</sup> in N York which I have no doubt will be duly honor<sup>d</sup> & meet with your approbation. I have purchased since my last to you 10 Hn<sup>d</sup> Tobacco & hope to make out the 45 Hn<sup>d</sup> in time for the Augus return & not exceed $3 Hn. The planters are now asking more on acc<sup>t</sup> the rumour of the (??a garlemes<sup>d</sup>??) to be intend<sup>d</sup> to be repeal<sup>d</sup> that Horrible Law. Cotton is now current at $12½ Cash. I was in hopes to (get?) hold of some at your limits. But it was improbable as the holders all expect the Odious Law is to be repeal<sup>d</sup> by 4th March. I hope your M<sup>r</sup> Ives will have arr<sup>d</sup> to his Family eer this comes to Hand in good health. I should have been very Happy indeed to have seen him at Fayette<sup>d</sup> & would chearfully given him my best bed & table. I think he must have had a pleasant jaunt & seen something new among the Demo<sup>ts</sup> at Congress. I anticipate the Hope that they the Demo<sup>s</sup> will not Dare to involve their Country in a War with GB to make Free Ships Free Goods for that's the Bone of all the Quarrel at last I think. Please to inform me your opinion respecting the price of cotton with you & in Boston I have a debt due in Boston next month & wish to know If cotton will (?do the ???) and I have pick<sup>d</sup> up some few Bales for this purpose. I will do all I can to hand you your pay as fast as I can possibl<sup>y</sup> get hold of anything But (woul<sup>d</sup>?) (empower?) for your Interest. O Pearce Daughter Eliza intends to take a Husband on Thursday Evening next a Dr Robinson of this town to be Happy man. A good Dem<sup>o</sup> he suits OP well. He is Nephew to the Senator from Vermont now in Senate US. I wish them all the happiness they can desire &tc. I can't help telling you Mrs Huske had a fine Boy 31st Janry She & child finely. My best wishes for your & family Happiness

& Remain yours Respectfully
